Item 8.01 Other Events.

On page 33 of the Company's proxy statement dated March 28, 2008 relating to the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on May 9, 2008 (the "Proxy Statement"), the Company provides the following disclosure in connection with its proposal to amend the Company's 2007 Stock Incentive Plan:

"Under the 2007 Stock Incentive Plan, grants may not be made to the extent that an award of options or stock appreciation rights would cause the Company's burn rate (as defined below), as an average over the three year period from 2008 through 2010, to exceed 2.55% per year. The burn rate will be calculated as (i) the number of shares of Common Stock underlying (a) stock options, (b) stock-settled stock appreciation rights, (c) restricted stock, (d) restricted stock units, (e) performance stock actually earned and delivered or deferred, and (e) similar awards that may be settled by the delivery of shares, divided by (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at the beginning of the fiscal year. Stock Appreciation Rights or full value shares settled in cash will not be included in the calculation of the burn rate. The limitation applies with respect to the Company's equity awards under the 2007 Stock Incentive Plan, the Company's 1998 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended, and any other compensation plan (as defined by the NASDAQ Stock Market rules), but excludes plans assumed in acquisitions and tax-qualified plans."

Subsequent to the filing of the Proxy Statement, the Company committed to further limitations on future grants under the 2007 Stock Incentive Plan. Accordingly, the Company hereby supplements the disclosure on page 33 of the Proxy Statement to add the following:

"In calculating the burn rate, shares issuable upon exercise or payment, as the case may be, of awards other than options or stock appreciation rights shall be counted as two shares for each share actually issuable in respect of the award (or such lower multiplier for "full value awards", including performance shares, as is consistent with Institutional Shareholder Services governance policies in effect at the time of grant or calculation)."
